Other Info.

- Late assignments will not be accepted without prior arrangement and/or documented justification. Justifications include illness, bereavement, and childbirth.
- There will be an assignment due in the last two weeks of class.
- Any questions about marks, addition, recording etc., or special circumstances (e.g., illness, bereavement) must be brought to my attention before the final exam. No reconsideration of marks other than the final exam will be made after the exam has been written.
- Academic dishonesty will, as a minimum result in a grade of zero for the offending work, and will be reported to the Associate Dean. Academic dishonesty includes copying, allowing your work to be copied, unauthorized working in groups, and failing to correctly cite sources. See the relevant calendar regulations for more information. If you have any doubt about whether something constitutes academic dishonesty, consult with me.
- Asking questions is strongly encouraged.
- Comments, suggestions and constructive criticisms are always welcome.
